

Business Communication

Evidence: Professional Email Writing Guide

1. Structure of a Professional Email

A professional email should include the following sections:

Section	Description
Subject Line	Keep it short and clear (e.g., Request for Meeting on Friday)
Greeting	Use formal greetings such as 'Dear Mr/Ms [Surname]'
Body	State the purpose clearly, keep paragraphs short, and maintain a polite tone
Closing	Include a polite closing such as 'Kind regards' or 'Best wishes'
Signature	Include your full name, position, and contact details if applicable

2. Tips for Professional Tone

- Avoid slang, emojis, and abbreviations
- Always check spelling and grammar before sending
- Be polite, concise, and respectful
- Use a professional email address
- Reply promptly to maintain good communication

3. Example Email

Subject: Request for Meeting – Project Discussion

Dear Mrs, Wessels,

I hope this message finds you well. I would like to request a short meeting to discuss the progress of our Professional Communications project. Please let me know your availability this week so we can confirm a suitable time.

Kind regards,
Siyabulela Mgijima